THE WORK OF THIS MODULE

THE SOURCES

Name them as they come. Coaches and the corrections they actually give you. Your shelf. Your watch history. The fighters whose tape you rewatch. The training partner who explains things well. What's real, not what sounds good — an honest short list beats a long one.

THE COMPRESSION STEP – WHERE LEARNING HAPPENS

IF I HAD FIVE MINUTES TO TEACH THIS

Rank them. Which of these actually changed how you fight, and which ones just felt good to consume? That ranking is the map. Say it the way you'd say it out loud to someone standing in front of you.

TEACH-BACK

Show the map to your coach or a training partner and ask what's missing. That conversation is the teach-back. It's a conversation, not a shoot — the gym's filming limits don't apply to this page.

APPLICATION

Use the map to decide what you study, every day of the set. Then notice what you reached for that wasn't on it. That gap is the most valuable thing this module produces.
